

THE GAMBIA ROOTS FESTIVAL MAY 06 – 16, 2014

The Roots festival begins with a guided tour of Goreé Island and the House of Slaves in Dakar, Senegal. Then you'll proceed to Banjul, Gambia. You will be welcomed with food and drinks and greeted by the Minister for Tourism. Festival highlights are traditional dance, music, drama, visits to Kunta Kinteh Island, the slavery museum, intercultural exchanges with the chief and elders of Juffureh and much more. Makasutu Forest and an African Gala Dinner are not to be missed. Price includes flight from JFK, hotel accommodations, entry fees, some meals, etc.

Price per person based on double occupancy $2720.00

Crocodile Pool in Banjul, Gambia

Goreé Island Door of No Return in Dakar

Email Georgina@AfricanTravelSeminars.com for the detailed itinerary application
Apply by October 31, 2013 for the Early Bird Price